

Bracket Explanation for the PYSA Fall Cup

Consolation games can end in a tie. No shootout in Consolation games.

Games that are semifinals are 1st Bracket A vs. 1st Bracket C and 1st Bracket B vs. 1st Bracket D

Groups of 4 teams – 1 bracket of 4. Each team plays 3 games in their bracket, with the 1st in points and the 2nd in points playing in the final.

Groups of 6 teams - 2 brackets of 3. Each team plays 2 games in their bracket, with the 1st in points from each bracket playing in the Final. Crossover consolation games will be as follows: 2nd in bracket A vs. 2nd in bracket B and 3rd in bracket A vs. 3rd in bracket B.

Groups of 8 teams – 2 brackets of 4. Each team plays 3 games in their bracket, with the 1st in points from each bracket playing in the Final.

Groups of 12 teams – 4 brackets of 3. Each team plays 2 games in their bracket, with the 1st in points from each bracket playing in the semifinals to see who will play in the Final. Crossover consolation games will be as follows: 2nd in bracket A vs. 2nd in bracket B, 3rd in bracket A vs. 3rd in bracket B, 2nd in bracket C vs. 2nd in bracket D, and 3rd in bracket C vs. 3rd in bracket D.